

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

December 20, 1922.

Permit No. 1923-52.
North Coast Packing Company.
Ninilchik.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the North Coast Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning, salting and mild curing of salmon for commercial purposes at Ninilchik, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate two (2) traps on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet north of the mouth of the Ninilchik River, as specified in their application for permit dated December 11, 1922, the location of these traps to be reported to the Bureau accompanied by a map or chart on which the sites are indicated, if such has not already been filed. No gill net permits will be issued to the company, but fish may be purchased from any individuals obtaining permits to fish for salmon. The use of purse seines within the reservation will not be permitted in fishing for salmon.

2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed ten thousand (10,000) cases computed upon the basis of 48 ^{half-}pound cans per case, and one hundred tierces of mild cured, and one hundred barrels salted.

*equivalent to 5,000
48-lb.
cases.*

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOPER,

Secretary of Commerce.
